'Eric Clapton: Live at the Royal Albert Hall - Slowhand at 70' celebrates 50 years at the top of the music industry and over 200 performance at London's most iconic venue for one of the world's greatest rock guitarists.

The film, recorded on 21st May 2015, captures the raw intensity of this momentous night, from intimate beginnings to epic finale. Audiences will experience classic songs and fan favourites from throughout his career – from the Mississippi blues of Robert Johnson that originally inspired him through Cream, Derek & the Dominos and the many highlights of Clapton's long solo career.

THE SHOW:

- Set list of genre-defining classics, including 'Layla', 'Can't Find My Way Home', 'Tears in Heaven', 'Let it Rain', 'Wonderful Tonight', 'Cocaine' 'High Time We Went' and many more.
- Guest performances from renowned musicians Paul Carrack, Steve Gadd, Chris Stainton and Nathan East.
- Exclusive featurette presented by Paul Gambaccini, includes interviews with Paul Carrack, Andy Fairweather Lowe, Hugh Fielder and Paul Sexton

THE LEGEND:

- 27 million albums sold, over 105 million Spotify plays
- 23 original studio albums, featuring guests such as JJ Cale and BB King
- First artist to play more than 200 shows at the legendary Royal Albert Hall
- Over 9 million Social followers
- Awarded OBE in 1994 for services to music, and CBE in 2004
- Rock & Roll Hall of Fame three time inductee: with Cream, The Yardbirds and in 2000 as a solo artist
- 18 Grammy Award wins, including 2006 Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award for his work with Cream, 3 awards for "Tears in Heaven" in 1993, Album of the Year and Best Rock Vocal Performance for Unplugged and Best Rock Song for "Layla"
- Outstanding Contribution to Music Brit Award
